Re: Lawrence v. Sadek, et al., Case No. 12-cv-01372 (U.S. District Court for the Central District of California)

Dear Ms. Lawrence:

I am writing to you in my capacity as counsel to the ResCap Liquidating Trust (the "Liquidating Trust"). the successor in interest to Residential Capital, LLC and certain of its direct and indirect subsidiaries, including Executive Trustee Services, LLC (collectively, the "Debtors").

As you are aware, on May 14, 2012 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court"). The Debtors' cases (the "Bankruptcy Cases") are being jointly administered, indexed at Case No. 12-12020 (MG).

On August 29, 2012, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Establishing Deadline for Filing Proofs of Claim and Approving the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof [Bankruptcy Docket 1309] (the "Bar Date Order"). The Bar Date Order established, among other things, November 9, 2012 at 5:00 p.m. (Prevailing Eastern Time) as the deadline to file proofs of claim by virtually all creditors against the Debtors (the "Bar Date"). On November 7, 2012, in light of the damage caused by Superstorm Sandy, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order extending the Bar Date to November 16, 2012 at 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) [Bankruptcy Docket 2093]. Paragraph 11 of the Bar Date Order provides that any party that did not file a proof of claim "shall be forever barred, estopped and enjoined from asserting such claim against the Debtors (or filing a proof of claim with respect thereto), and the Debtors, their Chapter 11 estates, their successors and their respective property shall be forever discharged from any and all indebtedness or liability with respect to such claim."

On December 11, 2013, the Bankruptcy Court entered its Order Confirming Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan Proposed by Residential Capital, LLC et al. and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Confirmation Order") [Bankruptcy Docket 6065] approving the terms of the Chapter 11 plan, as amended (the "Plan") [Bankruptcy Docket 6065-1]. The effective date under the Plan occurred on December 17, 2013 (the "Effective Date"). Under Article VIII.B of the Plan, claims that were not timely filed by the Bar Date are released as of the Effective Date. Further, both the Confirmation Order and the Plan contain an "Injunction" provision that, among other things, enjoins all parties from "commencing or continuing in any manner or action or other proceeding of any kind" relating to claims that are released under the Plan. See Plan, Art. IX.I; Confirmation Order, ¶ 40(g).

On March 13, 2015, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving certain procedures for enforcing the injunctive provisions of the Plan and Confirmation Order [Docket No. 8303] (the "Enforcement Order"). Specifically, upon the Liquidating Trust's determination that a party is asserting monetary claims against the Debtors in a litigation but failed to file a proof of claim, the Liquidating Trust is authorized to send this letter informing the party that they are in violation of the Plan and Confirmation Order.

* According to the Debtors' records, you are a party to Lawrence v. Sadek, et al., Case No. 12-cv-01372 pending before the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California. The Liquidating Trust has made a good faith determination that this action asserts monetary claims against the Debtors because you assert, among other things, damages for:

- Breach of Fiduciary Duty
- Fraud
- Usury

Further, according to the Liquidating Trust's records you did not timely file a proof of claim in the Bankruptcy Cases and is barred from continuing to pursue monetary claims against Executive Trustee Services, LLC under the injunction provided for in the Plan and Confirmation Order. Therefore, you must immediately dismiss this action with respect to monetary claims asserted against Executive Trustee Services, LLC.

In the event you do not voluntarily dismiss this action with respect to monetary claims against Executive Trustee Services, LLC within 30 days of the date hereof, or July 30, 2015, the Liquidating Trust shall seek relief from the Bankruptcy Court in the form of an order (i) enforcing the injunctive provisions of the Plan and Confirmation Order, and (ii) prohibiting you from continuing prosecution of this action against Executive Trustee Services, LLC.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you disagree with the Liquidating Trust's determination that you are asserting monetary claims against the Debtors, or to further discuss this matter. In addition, you may obtain information regarding the Bankruptcy Cases, including copies of the Enforcement Order, Confirmation Order, Plan, and Bar Date Order via the Debtors' chapter 11 website at <http://www.kccllc.net/rescap>.

Very truly yours,

Joseph A. Shifer

Penalty for presenting fraudulent claim: Fine of up to $500,000 or imprisonment for up to 5 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152 and 3571.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, exceptions to these general rules may apply.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district in which the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the debtor's full name, and the case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

3b. Uniform Claim Identifier:

If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optional 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions.) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing, the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a):

If any portion of the claim falls into any category shown, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest and documents required by FRBP 3001(c) for claims based on an open-end or revolving consumer credit agreement or secured by a security interest in the debtor's principal residence. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

8. Date and Signature:

The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.
